Hub Brings Beacon's Brad Castleman on as Business Development Associate

Braintree, MA, June, 2017 – Hub Pen Company and Beacon Promotions are proud to announce that Beacon's Brad Castleman has joined Hub's sales team as Business Development Associate. Castleman has been with Beacon for over three years with the inside sales and customer service team. In his new role he will be responsible for developing new business for both Hub Pen and Beacon Promotions.

The New Orleans native moved to Minnesota with his wife 15 years ago, to settle down and start a family. "When our son was born I was on the road selling and we realized I needed to be close to home," Brad remembers. "I came on board with Beacon and loved it. It's a fun place to work and a fun business. I really enjoy connecting with our customers and helping them grow sales."

"When the chance came along to add the Hub product line for sales opportunities and work with the Hub sales team, I was very excited," says Brad. "I am looking forward to making sure all our customers are familiar with both Hub and Beacon for their promotional projects going forward."

"Brad has been an excellent member of Beacon's Customer Care team," says Carrie Forstner, Beacon's Customer Care Manager. "He engages with customers to help them find solutions and is excited to incorporate his sales experience as he moves into his new role. He will continue to assist our valued customers with knowledge of the full scope of Beacon and Hub products and services."
