Hub Pen Company Hires Glenn Walker as Web Systems Administrator

Welcomes Glenn Walker to the Growing Technology Department

BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS (May 15, 2014) – Hub Pen Company has announced the hiring of Glenn Walker, Web Systems Administrator, as a key addition to the technology team.

Prior to joining Hub Pen, Walker worked for Specialty Commerce Corp. where he managed a small team of web developers responsible for eight e-commerce websites. Walker also ran his own website design and development firm, Firefly Technologies Corp. for six years.

“Hub has made significant investments in technology; particularly web-based systems to advance the business. It’s exciting to be a part of that,” said Glenn.

Joseph Fleming, President also added, “We are very excited to welcome Glenn to the Hub Pen family. He will be a valuable addition to the staff as we continue improving our website and daily operating systems.”
