PRESS RELEASE:

Top 40 ASI Supplier Hub Pen Expands the Family Business with Strong Business Partner Tenex Capital Management

BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS (April 14, 2016) Hub Pen Company is excited to announce that, after an extensive search, the Company has chosen Tenex Capital Management as its new partner to support growth and to help the Fleming Family and all others associated with Hub Pen achieve their personal and professional goals. Hub Pen will continue into its 57th year operating as a family-owned business, with active family shareholders Joe Fleming, President, Mike Fleming, VP Sales, and Bob McGaughey, VP and General Manager, continuing on in their current roles with the Company. In fact, the entire Hub Pen team will remain in place. Together with our new partner, we will be better positioned to provide our associated distributors the quality products and services that have made Hub a leader for more than half a century.

The Company wishes to thank all of its valued partners for all the consideration and support they have shown over the years and looks forward to a dynamic future with our expanded team.
