Hub Pen Company Promotes Tim Fox to New England Sales Executive

BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS (August 5, 2016) – Hub Pen Company is excited to announce the promotion of inside sales representative Timothy Fox to sales executive for the New England area. Tim will represent the company in the states of Massachusetts, Maine, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Fox is a graduate of the University Of Massachusetts Isenberg School Of Business and joined Hub Pen as an inside sales rep last year, working with customers and the company's sales reps in the Southwest and Mid-South, Texas and Oklahoma. As a native of Pembroke Massachusetts he is looking forward to working with customers here in New England.

"In the time I've been with Hub, I have never seen an organization that is so beloved by their customers and employees alike," Tim said. "My customers can rest assured knowing that I have learned from the best, am still learning from the best, and will continue to do so. Plus with the help of the dedicated New England team, that has already been proving that Hub Pen is synonymous with a quality service and product, my customers are in good hands."

"I am excited for Tim. He is intelligent, motivated and enthusiastic. He will make a terrific sales executive and grow Hub sales in New England," said Andy Arruda, MAS, National Sales Manager.

According to Mike Fleming, Vice President of Sales, "As our product offerings and services continue to expand, the addition of talented sales executives such as Tim will allow us to build on new and existing relationships."
